

P40P

P40p™

P40p™ is Nektium's pomegranate (Punica granatum) extract, standardized to more than 40% punicosides and over 30% punicalagins, with strong antioxidant power.

Pomegranate is one of the earliest fruits to be cultivated, was eaten by the Egyptian Pharaohs, and is considered the queen of anti-ageing fruits. Traditionally, it has been used as integral part of traditional systems of medicine, including Ayurveda in India.

Publications have reported reduction of neurodegenerative disorders, protection of skeletal muscle mass, maintenance of microbiota and positive effects on cardiovascular and metabolic health.
